14. Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff for overtime hours worked during a trip to London, England.

15. Additionally, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a paystub which accurately showed her hours worked, a violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

16. Defendant, MACRENE ALEXIADES M.D., is an individual who, upon information and belief, owns the stock of MACRENE ALEXIADES M.D., PLLC, owns MACRENE

ALEXIADES M.D., PLLC, and manages and makes all business decisions, including but not limited to, the decisions of what salary the employees will receive and the number of hours the employees will work.

17. Defendant, MACRENE ALEXIADES M.D., exercised control over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's employment, in that has and has had the power to: (i) hire and fire employees, (ii) determine rates and methods of pay, (iii) determine work schedules, (iv) supervise and control the work of the employees, and (v) otherwise affect the quality of the employees' employment.

18. Plaintiff was not properly compensated wages at the overtime wage rate for all hours worked over forty (40) in a workweek.

19. Defendant(s) knowingly and willfully operated business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff wages for hours worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek at the overtime wage rate in violation of the FLSA and NYLL and the supporting Federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

20. At all relevant times, upon information and belief, and during Plaintiff's employment, the Defendant(s) failed to maintain accurate and sufficient time records.

21. Defendant(s) did not provide Plaintiff with an accurate wage statement or summary, accurately accounting for the actual hours worked, and setting forth the hourly rate of pay and overtime wages.

22. Upon information and belief, this was done to disguise the actual number of hours the Plaintiff worked and to avoid paying overtime wages for all hours worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek.

23. Defendant(s) willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and the NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

24. Plaintiff has been substantially damaged by the Defendant(s)' wrongful conduct.

33. Defendant(s) knowingly and willfully disregarded the provisions of the FLSA, as evidenced by the failure to compensate Plaintiff for all hours worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek at the overtime wage rate when Defendant(s) knew or should have known such was due and that non-payment of an overtime rate would financially injure Plaintiff.

34. Defendant(s) have failed to make, keep and preserve records concerning each of its employees sufficient to determine the wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S.A. §§ 201, et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 211(c) and 215(a).
